NORTHERN IRELAND: OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

Whether you're on a pilgrimage to the famous Game of Thrones filming locations or you fancy exploring caves, castles and coastline, you'll find it all within an hour's drive of Belfast.

The world is catching on to the secret that locals have always known: Northern Ireland is one of the most beautiful places on the planet. From golden beaches to lush forests, as a student in Belfast, the region's most breath taking landscapes will be right on your doorstep.

Spend your downtime testing your nerve crossing the death-defying Carrick-a-Rede rope bridge. Alternatively, scale the heights of our tallest peak, Slieve Donard, set in the picturesque Mourne Mountains – an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and the inspiration for CS Lewis' magical world of Narnia.

You can also follow the 22-mile Mourne Wall, featured in Game of Thrones. And if you're a fan of the hit HBO show, you can't afford to miss a trip to the Dark Hedges. This twisted avenue of light and shade is one of Northern Ireland's most photographed natural phenomena, and doubles as the King's Road in the series.

Well worth the road trip for the spectacular Antrim Coast Road drive alone, the Giant's Causeway, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a must. There are also plenty of stunning beaches to enjoy a lazy Sunday walk – some just 25 minutes from Belfast.

If adrenaline thrills are your thing, the lakes, waterways and beaches of the region offer outdoor fun to suit everyone – from Sea Safaris on Strangford Lough, where you might spot seals, porpoises or a basking shark, to the north Atlantic surf off the coast at Portrush, ranked among the best in the world.

BELFAST: FRIENDLY AFFORDABLE FUN

You're going to love it here. So make yourself at home. Belfast is a modern capital city, welcoming, easy to get around and an affordable place in which to live and study.

As Belfast flourishes as a global food, culture, arts and shopping destination, Queen's is at the social and cultural heart of the city.

CULTURE

Belfast is a city of artists, poets, writers and musicians who are celebrated in arts venues, such as The MAC and the Black Box. Double Major-winning golfer Rory McIlroy and Hollywood star Jamie Dornan grew up in the appropriately-named Hollywood, just outside the city, and Kenneth Branagh, Academy-award nominated actor and director, was also born here.

A capital with a culture of its own, Belfast is renowned for having a unique clubs, cuisine, culture and arts scene of its very own, including the Kremlin, Belfast's famed Soviet-style nightclub, with a reputation as the best gay venue in Ireland. Throughout the year, Belfast hosts a range of events and urban festivals from music, theatre, dance, film and comedy. Highlights include Culture Night and Belfast Vital Festival.

Food is a big deal in Belfast with a mix of cool new pop-ups and Michelin-starred staples. Northern Ireland and the Titanic Studios have become internationally renowned as a film location too, most famously for HBO's Game of Thrones.

Belfast is a city with real personality and is well-known for having the friendliest and most welcoming folk in the world. In a city famed for its humour, you can catch regular stand-up comedy nights at Belfast's Empire Comedy Club, where Queen's alumnus Paddy Kielty's career began.

MUSIC MATTERS

From the punk scene in the 1970s to the MTV Europe Music Awards in 2011 alongside traditional folk sessions, Belfast has passionately embraced the unifying power of music. The Oh Yeah Music Centre is a hub for bands and creative types and a safe house for musos and rockers. At night, the cobblestoned streets and fascinating architecture of the Cathedral Quarter play host to the city's best bars and clubs and intimate live music venues, such as The Sunflower. Snow Patrol, Van Morrison and Stiff Little Fingers all got started in Belfast.

MORE MONEY FOR THE THINGS THAT COUNT

Northern Ireland has the lowest student living costs in the UK; £174 per month cheaper compared to the UK average. (Save the Student National Student Money Survey 2023)

GETTING AROUND

Belfast is best explored on foot or by bike. Most students spend the majority of their time on foot and walking to the city centre takes no more than 10-15 minutes. The city is well connected by frequent bus and train services, with student travel discounts widely available. The Belfast Bikes public bicycle rental scheme provides a flexible way to get around Belfast.

GATEWAY

Belfast is the gateway to the rest of Northern Ireland and beyond and has been lauded by Michael Palin for having the world's most beautiful railway. From coastline to mountain, adventure awaits you.

Belfast was voted second friendliest city in the UK

(Condé Nast Traveller, Readers' Choice Awards 2023)

ONE OF THE BEST REGIONS IN THE WORLD TO VISIT

Belfast is one of Europe's most hip and vibrant capital cities – just ask the experts at Lonely Planet who love the city for its energy, lively atmosphere, and 'dynamic young population that keeps the city on trend.'

The beauty is that it's all packed into a compact city that's easy and safe to explore.

US STUDENTS AT QUEEN'S

Queen's has been welcoming US students to Belfast for decades, with around 200 US students enrolling every year on a variety of undergraduate, graduate and short-term study abroad programmes. US students choose Queen's for a variety of reasons – the chance to study a focused three year Bachelors degree, the lower cost of studying and living, or reconnecting with their heritage on the island of Ireland.

Moving internationally makes everything feel like an adventure. Tasks that used to be mundane—such as finding local grocery stores, taking public transportation, exchanging currency, hearing different accents—are all suddenly new and exciting, though sometimes rather anxiety-inducing.

For me, my adventures in Belfast didn't truly start until I heard a knock on my door one random afternoon. My neighbour, a fellow international student, brought over desserts from her home country as a welcome gift. It was this unexpected act of kindness and our mutual desire to travel that blossomed into a beautiful friendship. From then on, we became close friends, going on walks throughout the city, exploring the nearby areas whenever our schedules aligned, and sharing food from our different countries' cuisines.

Our first adventure in Belfast was to Cavehill, a 360 metre hill and roughly 4.5 mile hike with lush forests, basalt rocks and caves, and gorgeous panoramic views of the city. We loved the hike so much that we returned the next weekend with a picnic blanket and lunch, only to have an unexpected snow flurry that made us hurry back down the hill!

On our most recent excursion, my neighbour and I decided to get out of Belfast and explore the surrounding areas. With a train station located so close to our Queen's accommodation in Elms BT2, Northern Ireland is so accessible, even for two foreigners who had no idea how to get around at first. On this first adventure outside of the city, we went to Bangor in County Down to visit the ocean. Here, we took a five mile walk along a beautiful coastline path where we were able to dip our toes in the waters of the Belfast Lough and have a picnic on the white sandy beaches.

There are many opportunities to travel and explore as well as plenty of likeminded students here at Queen's who share similar interests. My adventures with my neighbour and my life in Northern Ireland are just beginning, but so far the random spring snow flurries and finding shells on the coast have made my time in Northern Ireland truly memorable.

I am SO GLAD I decided to pursue my degree at Queen's. The opportunity to study at a world-class institution in this beautiful city is an untraditional route often overlooked by my American peers. Still, I could not imagine a better way to study and explore the opportunity of self-growth presented by academic transnationalism. I am gaining a tremendous education through my classes and daily experiences of living in a new city, inside a new country, with an entirely different culture than anything I am familiar with. The community I have found through academics, societies, and among my flatmates feels like home. I am impressed by the access to the nearby mountains and the sea, which provide ground for wonderful weekend adventures. Belfast is a gateway to the wider continent of Europe, but there is no lack of things to do and see; there is so much to explore in the city and across the broader island.

If you want to connect with current US students at Queen's, you can do so through the Unibuddy platform on the Queen's website at qub.ac.uk/study/chat-with-students

BA International Relations and Politics

I decided to study in Northern Ireland after visiting Queen's and liking the course, the campus, and the city. I've really enjoyed my course and the opportunity to focus on my studies; whereas in the US I would've had to take general education and unrelated classes, at Queen's I'm able to just study international relations and politics. I appreciate the focus of my degree path and I'm a more motivated and passionate student because of it. I also love that my degree included a placement opportunity where I was able to gain real work experience with the Northern Ireland civil service! My time at Queen's has been so fulfilling, both through my coursework and through the people I've met here. The clubs and societies I joined in my first year, like orchestra and debate, have added an invaluable social aspect to my degree.

I've loved living in Belfast the past three years! It's a great 'cheap city' which means I can do and see a lot even while on a student budget. It doesn't break the bank to go out to a cafe or restaurant. The food is one of my favourite things about Belfast; super cool restaurants and plenty of sweet treats mean there's always a reason to go on a walk and explore! My favourite Belfast activities include a Friday night hockey game at the SSE Arena, checking out Hill Street Hatch's newest pop-up, and seeing a film at the QFT. I always look forward to Belfast's multiple annual events too, like Culture Night and Outburst! And outside of Belfast, Northern Ireland is absolutely beautiful and travelling into the Republic of Ireland is super easy, so there's been plenty of opportunity for further travel, like to the beautiful West Coast.

FEES AND FUNDING

We know that going to university is a huge investment, so at Queen's we do everything we can to be transparent about the costs of studying and living in Northern Ireland.

Remember – most of our majors are only three years long, so you're automatically saving a year of tuition and living costs!

It is common in the US for tuition fees to be tied to the amount of credits you're taking in an academic year, but at Queen's your tuition cost is tied to your major. Your credit load is fixed each year, so you won't find yourself in the position of reaching your graduation date and still needing to take (and pay for) extra credits or classes. The tuition fees you see are the actual cost you will pay.

TUITION FEES 2026-27

Below is a table of tuition fees for our courses. They are broadly split into two categories – Classroom and Laboratory fees, to represent the need for extra practical facilities and materials in some of our programmes. Exact fee rates can be found on the Course Finder pages on our website.

Annual Tuition Fees 2026-27	£ Pounds Sterling	$ US Dollars (estimated)
Classroom based programmes (fee rate 1)	22,400	$30,150
Laboratory based programmes (fee rate 2)	26,600	$36,660
Pre-Clinical elements of medical courses (fee rate 3)	39,200	$53,000
Clinical elements of medical courses* (fee rate 4)	47,000	$63,500
Dentistry*	41,500	$56,000

*Not inclusive of NHS clinical placement levy.

More details of available scholarships can be found at qub.ac.uk/International/International-students/International-scholarships/

Northern Ireland has the lowest student living costs in the UK

(Save the Student National Student Money Survey 2024)

You don't need to buy textbooks! At Queen's we have an award-winning library, where students can borrow all their required texts for free. Books generally are much cheaper in Northern Ireland, so if there is a book you really want your own copy of, you can probably pick it up for less than £50.

COMPARING COSTS WITH THE USA

Here's how Queen's lines up against similarly ranked universities in the US, before financial aid and scholarships are taken into consideration.

ADMISSIONS AT QUEEN'S

Applying to study in the UK is quite different to applying to colleges in the USA. There are some big differences (like choosing a major before you apply), and some small ones (like figuring out the difference between American English and British English), but this section of our guide will talk you through all the things you need to know to build a successful application to UK universities – and hopefully to Queen's!

YOUR ADMISSIONS JOURNEY

Research – choosing your major

- At universities in the UK (except Scotland!), you go directly into your major on day one. If you're a student who knows what you want to study, this gives you a great opportunity to focus on the things you want to learn about – with no required general education classes.
- This does mean that the first step in your admissions journey is making sure you pick the right course. Don't worry though, there are loads of great resources to help you choose:
 - University websites and brochures (like this one!)
 - UCAS Subject Guides (ucas.com/explore/subjects)
 - International advisors (like our very own North America team)

ADMISSIONS PHILOSOPHY AT QUB

UK university admissions are centred on the concept of academic merit and potential. With our three year degree programmes, we want to know that our students are prepared academically to meet the challenges of their chosen subject head on – so our entry requirements focus on the capability of an applicant to succeed primarily in the classroom as evidenced in their prior academic attainment and focus of study if there are subject specific requirements. We want all of our students to be able to thrive in the learning environment we provide and our approach to admissions is designed to support this goal.

What we consider

- Your academic record – in the form of your high school transcript and any tests and academic achievements
- Your academic suitability – in the form of demonstrated knowledge and understanding of the subject area, and your personality as a student

What we don't consider

- Institutional fit – we don't consider class rankings or balance at Queen's, just individual merit of each applicant
- Demonstrated interest – we'd love it if you were able to visit the campus, join our open days or speak to our team – but it has no bearing on your admissions decision
- Legacy – there is no weight applied to legacy candidates
- Unrelated extra-curricular activities – things like athletic achievement and musical ability are great, but if it isn't relevant to your major or your potential as student, it won't play a role in our decision making

How we assess our applicants – the components of your application

Academic background

- Transcripts, exams taken and exams you plan to take – these are used to evaluate your academic suitability

Personal statement

- This is used to assess your understanding of the subject area, and for you to demonstrate why you would make a good student at QUB

Letter of recommendation

- This is a chance for your teachers or counsellor to give us a better idea of who you are as a student

HOW TO APPLY

There are two ways to apply to Queen's as an international student: UCAS and Direct Application

UCAS

- UCAS Application is the centralised application system for UK universities – similar in purpose to the Common App in the US
- All applications are done through the UCAS website (ucas.com)
- Through UCAS, you are able to apply to a maximum of five universities or courses – which is why the research stage of your admissions journey is so important.
- There is a small fee to apply – £28.50 for up to five.
- The application deadline for most courses is June 30th
- The application deadline for Medicine and Dentistry is October 15th

UCAS – YOUR NEW BEST FRIEND!

The UCAS website is a fantastic resource for all stages of your admissions journey. From helping you to decide on a major, to useful tips and videos explaining how to write a great personal statement – it's full of great advice about how to build a successful application for studying in the UK. Check it out at ucas.com

Direct Applications

- We also accept Direct Applications for students who are not applying through UCAS to other UK universities. This is important – you can't do both!
- The deadline for Direct Applications is also June 30th
- Direct Applications are free!
- Direct applications can be submitted via the Queen's Portal CLICK HERE TO SIGN IN
- Please note that the Queen's Portal must not be used for applications to Medicine, Dentistry, Nursing/ Midwifery, Pharmacy, or Social Work - applications to these courses must be submitted through UCAS.

Common App and how it ties into UCAS

- Some UK universities are on the Common App – but we are not. It is strongly recommended that you use UCAS to apply to the UK and stick to your five course limit – applying to extra universities through the Common App can lead to complications later in the admissions cycle if you accept multiple offers.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS AT QUB

The grades required for admission to our undergraduate degree programmes will vary to your chosen course of study. The Course Finder on our website show detailed requirements for every course – normally expressed in the terms of three A-Level grades. At Queen's, we accept a combination of qualifications which can be used to meet our academic entry requirements.

Students may submit a mixture of qualifications, a combination of 3, to meet the Queen's entrance requirements*:

- AP exam scores
- SAT 1
- ACT
- Honors class grade
- College or dual enrollment class grade
- IB Higher Level subject test

*Exception: Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy, Nursing & Midwifery, and Social Work

We expect our students have taken a rigorous curriculum at high school, which should include a college preparatory curriculum. Applicants should have taken classes to the most advanced level offered at your school.

At a minimum, students are therefore required to submit at least 1 Honors Class grade of an A OR 1 AP test score. Where there are subject specific requirements to be met (e.g. A-level Chemistry is a requirement for BSc Chemistry), students typically must submit a cognate Honors Class grade of an A, an AP test score of 5, or a Dual Enrollment class grade of an A in Chemistry to meet the subject requirement.

Applicants who have successfully completed an Associate Degree with an overall GPA of 3.0/4.0 awarded by a recognised US institution will be considered for admission to Stage 1 of an undergraduate degree programme. Any subject requirements must be met.

Queen's Institutional Codes for sending direct score reports:

ACT: 7799
SAT and AP: 7753

Worked Example

For example, if the requirement for a QUB course is BBB at A-Level, the following combination is possible.

Two Honors Class grades of B+ or higher

Plus one from:

- AP test score of 4 or higher
- SAT I test with a minimum score of 1290
- ACT test with a minimum score of 27

You can use the table below for US qualifications and grade requirements which we deem comparable to UK A-Levels.

Some Important Things to Note:

- Subjects cannot be counted twice – if you're taking AP US History, you cannot also submit an Honors class in US History.
- You do not need to have taken the tests before you apply – we can issue offers based on tests you are planning to take in your Senior year.

MEDICINE AND DENTISTRY

For Medicine and Dentistry, we require:

- A High School Graduation Diploma with a minimum GPA of 3.5/4.0
- Four AP tests with scores of 5,5 (Chemistry and Biology), 5,4.
- Mathematics to GCSE equivalent standard – normally Grade 12 in High School
- GCSE Physics or equivalent is also required for Medicine.

For students taking the International Baccalaureate Diploma, we require:

- 36 points overall
- Grades 6,6,6 in Higher Level Subjects including Chemistry and Biology
- Mathematics and English (and Physics for Medicine) at Standard Level, or Grade 11 if not taken as part of the IB.
- Points obtained for the Extended Essay and Theory of Knowledge can count towards the total

Graduates may also be considered - a minimum of an Upper Second Class Honours degree or CGPA of 3.3 on scale of 4 (78%) would be required, and applicants must also have the appropriate background in the relevant science subjects to satisfy the course entry requirements.

Applicants for Medicine must also undertake the University Clinical Aptitude Test (UCAT) www.ucat.ac.uk

Remember – applications for Medicine and Dentistry close October 15th and the University will normally interview international applicants. For Dentistry, shortlisted applicants will be interviewed via an online process.

HOW TO GET A FASTER DECISION

There are a few ways you can help us make a faster decision on your application:

- Submit all your test scores and planned tests when you apply. UCAS can be a little tricky – if you can't find a space on the application, send it directly to us at intl.admissions@qub.ac.uk

You can send scores directly using our College Board codes – ACT: 7799, AP/SAT: 7753

UNDERSTANDING YOUR OFFER

Once you've submitted your application, it's over to us to process it. If you are successful in getting an offer from Queen's, it will be one of two things:

A Conditional Offer

This is by far the most common type of offer students receive in the UK. It will be an offer letter guaranteeing your place at QUB, subject to you meeting conditions which will be outlined in your offer letter. Typically they will be for you to meet the entry requirements – so hitting your target grades in your APs, for example. It may also be conditional on an interview or audition, but it will all be laid out in your offer letter. If you meet the conditions – you're in!

An Unconditional Offer

If, at the point you apply, you are deemed to have met the entry requirements, you may be issued an Unconditional Offer. If you are lucky enough to get an Unconditional Offer – your place at Queen's is guaranteed, you just need to accept!

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU GET YOUR OFFER

If you've applied through UCAS, you'll be able to view the decisions as they come in through your UCAS Hub account. This is where you registered and made your application to us. Your UCAS Hub account is your go to place for information on the status of your offer with us at Queen's. Once you have all your responses (Unconditional Offers, Conditional Offers or Rejections), you'll need to make a Firm (or first ranked) choice and an Insurance (or second ranked) choice. You will be required to reject any other offers, other than those two choices.

Your Firm choice should be the place you most want to go, and your Insurance choice is a back-up – in case you don't meet the conditions for your Firm choice. If you've applied directly to Queen's, we'll have emailed you with your offer letter. You just need to reply to our admissions office to let them know if you'd like to Accept or Reject the offer.

More details are on the website at qub.ac.uk/Study/Undergraduate/offer-holders/your-application-what-next/

ACADEMIES

Queen's Sport work with student clubs, governing bodies and alumni networks to develop our sporting academies. Currently there are five academies – Rugby, GAA, Soccer, Rowing and Hockey – with more than thirty five teams and six hundred students competing each year as part of our Performance Pathway.

We created these academies to provide a high performance culture within each sport, but also to promote recreational and community initiatives. Many sporting legends have graced the Queen's jersey with pride. We've named Rugby and GAA Academy Scholarships in honour of:

- Sean O'Neill (Gaelic Football)
- Jack Kyle (Rugby)
- Henry Downey (Hurling)

There are also Hockey, Rowing and Soccer Academy scholarships distributed annually.

In recent years, Queen's have supported athletes competing in top-level competitions in over twenty countries, including Olympics, Paralympics, World University Championships, European Athletics Championships and US Open Swimming Championships.

SPORTS BURSARIES

Our Sports Bursaries provide support for those non-academy athletes who are developing in their chosen sport. They also support students to compete nationally and on the world stage.
