

SOCIAL SCIENCE DATA ANALYSIS & VISUALIZATION, MINOR

College of Letters & Science

The Social Science Data Analysis & Visualization minor introduces students to the fundamentals and current innovations of research and data analysis across social science disciplines. It equips students with the skills to analyze, interpret, and visualize various data types using different research methods and prepares them to engage with contemporary research and contribute to data-driven scholarship.

For more information, contact poladvising@ucdavis.edu.

Code	Title	Units
Lower Division Requirements
Choose one:		4-5
POL 012Y	Data Visualization in the Social Sciences
POL 051	Scientific Study of Politics
SOC 056	Introduction to Social Statistics
or SOC 056Y	Introduction to Social Statistics
Lower Division Requirements Subtotal		4-5
Upper Division Requirements
Choose five:		20-23
ANT 109	Visualization in Science: A Critical Introduction
CMN 102	Empirical Methods in Communication
or CMN 102V	Empirical Methods in Communication
CMN 110	Communication Networks
CMN 150V	Computational Social Science
CMN 151	Simulating Communication Processes
CMN 152V	Social Science with Online Data
ECN 102	Analysis of Economic Data
ECN 140	Econometrics
EDU 114	Quantitative Methods in Educational Research
LIN 127	Text Processing & Corpus Linguistics
POL 114	Quantitative Analysis of Political Data
PSC 103A	Statistical Analysis of Psychological Data
PSC 103B	Statistical Analysis of Psychological Data
PSC 104	Applied Psychometrics: An Introduction to Measurement Theory
PSC 107	Questionnaire & Survey Research Methods
PSC 120	Agent-Based Modeling
SOC 103	Evaluation Research Methods
SOC 106	Intermediate Social Statistics
SOC 195	Special Topics in Sociological Analysis ¹
Upper Division Requirements Subtotal		20-23
Total Units		24-28

¹

When topic is appropriate.