Note:

1. All international students must comply with the Ministry of Education (MOE)'s"Regulations regarding International Students undertaking studies in Taiwan". In the event that any document submitted is determined to be fraudulent, forged, or altered in any manner, National Taiwan University (NTU) reserves the right to revoke the offer of admission, terminate the individual's student status, annul any academic records, and rescind any diploma or certificate that may have been conferred.

2. Students who hold both foreign and R.O.C nationality should have resided overseas continuously for at least six years in the immediate past before the starting date of the semester (August 1, 2026) and shall not undertake initial household registration, resident registration, naturalization, or restoration of R.O.C. nationality procedures (in short, applying for a ROC National Identity Card) during their studies at NTU. In the event of a violation of Article 12 of the Regulations Regarding International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan, the student's international student status shall be revoked, and the student shall be dismissed from NTU.

3. Admission results for students whose academic qualifications are under review will be announced after verification by the relevant authority.
