Dear AUB Students,

Final exams have begun, and we are writing to inform you of the steps you will need to take if you wish to avail yourselves of the alternate course grading option that was announced at the end of March.

We have placed instructions for both professors and students here. Kindly scroll down until you find “Procedures to follow for implementing the alternate course grading option,” and click on the version for students.

We wish you all success in your final exams.

Kind regards,

Office of the Registrar
