

Office of the Registrar

November 17, 2020

Dear AUB Students and Professors,

Please note that the last day for withdrawal from courses, originally set for November 20, 2020, is being extended to the last day of classes, December 2, 2020.

This change is being made to ensure all students have an adequate sense of where they stand in their courses before the deadline for withdrawal.

Students should consult with their instructors or advisors if they have questions about particular courses.

Kind regards,

Office of the Registrar
