

Disciplinary History

Have you ever been adjudicated guilty or convicted of a misdemeanor, felony, or other crime? [Note that you are not required to answer “yes” to this question, or provide an explanation, if the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, destroyed, erased, impounded, or otherwise ordered by a court to be kept confidential.] YES NO

Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from the 9th grade (or the international equivalent) forward--whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct--that resulted in a disciplinary action? These actions could include, but are not limited to: probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion. YES NO

If you answered “yes” to either or both questions, please attach a separate sheet of paper that gives the approximate date of each incident, explains the circumstances, and reflects on what you learned from the experience.

Statement to the Admissions Committee

All students applying for reinstatement are required to complete this section. Your statement should address why you wish to return, why you think you are ready to return and be successful, and what you have been doing during your absence.

If you were suspended or dropped from the university for academic reasons, you must furnish substantial evidence of a responsible and successful period of work or study during the intervening period. One acceptable form of evidence would be to address the issue in your two required letters of recommendation (one of which should be from your employer, if applicable). Additional evidence might include records of work experience, transcripts of coursework completed elsewhere, and/or records of military service.

If you were suspended from the university for disciplinary reasons, you must have met any special requirements imposed by the Office of Student Accountability, Community Standards, and Academic Integrity.

Use this space for your statement. If additional space is needed, use a separate sheet of paper.

Note: Applicants are expected to immediately notify the institutions to which they are applying should there be any changes to the information requested in this application, including disciplinary history.

I hereby agree to be bound by all policies, procedures, and regulations of Vanderbilt University, both those presently existing and those subsequently amended or adopted, including the Honor System.

I certify that all information submitted in the admission process is my own work, factually true, and honestly presented. If I provide false information, I understand that I may be subject to a range of possible disciplinary actions, including admission revocation, expulsion, or revocation of course credit, grades, and degree.
