

Interview for International Applicants

Regardless of the status of residence, international applicants must take an interview. The interview process is as follows.

【Application and Interview Process】

Select the course you want to take from the “Course List (for graduate programs)” and check the educational organization where you will take the interview. The educational organization where the interview will be taken is as follows.

- Those applying for the first time as a Credited Auditor (graduate program)
→ Degree programs or program with the highest total number of credits for the applied subjects
- Those enrolled in the past as a Credited Auditor (graduate program)
→ Due to the reorganization of all graduate programs at our university, the affiliated organization has changed since 2020. Please contact the Division of Educational Reform Support (gm.kkikakugrp@un.tsukuba.ac.jp) in advance.

Check the list of educational organizations listed on the following pages, contact the educational organization where you will take the interview, and check the date, time, and location of the interview.

* When contacting, inform them that you plan to apply as a credited auditor (graduate program) and that you wish to take an interview for international applicants.

«If the interview date is after the application period»

Apply within the application period after checking the Application Guidelines.

Take the interview at the specified date, time, and location.

«If the interview date is before the application period»

Prepare the Interview Form for International Applicants. Be sure to bring the interview form you prepared and take the interview at the specified date, time, and location.

(Please submit the interview form to the interviewer)

Apply within the application period after checking the Application Guidelines.

● International applicants must take the interview for the applied course in conjunction with the interview for international applicants. (For some courses, only a document screening may be required.) Please refer to “Selection Methods” and follow the instructions of each educational organization.
