

Dormitory Guide

POSTECH Housing Services Office

2026-2-23

1. Overview of Dormitory Facilities

- A. The dormitory complex consists of 22 buildings: 17 for male students, 3 for female students, a Residential College (RC), and a Community Center. Rooms are available as single or double occupancy.
- B. Freshman students are required to stay in the dormitory, while some sophomores live in designated RC buildings. Junior and senior undergraduates, as well as graduate students, may apply for general dormitories.
- C. Building 16 (DICE - Dormitory for International Culture Exchange) primarily accommodates international exchange students. Korean students may be assigned upon the chief of dorm's approval.

2. Operating Period

- A. Undergraduates: Dormitories operate according to the academic calendar, distinguishing between regular semesters and seasonal sessions.
- B. Graduate Students: Housing is available year-round without seasonal distinctions, divided into Spring (Semester 1 ~ Summer) and Fall (Semester 2 ~ Winter) terms

3. Eligibility for Admission

- A. Only enrolled students for the current semester can reside in dormitory. However, special military service personnel (such as professional research personnel) are considered POSTECH students until they obtain their degree. Part-time students may also be admitted to the dormitory with the approval from the Dean of Graduate School, limited to their period of enrollment.
- B. Admission to the dormitory may be restricted in the following cases
 - (1) If a student has received disciplinary action of suspension or higher according to school regulations
 - (2) If a student has exceeded the maximum period of dormitory use
 - (3) If a student has an infection disease
 - (4) If a student is deemed unsuitable for communal living by the dormitory director.
