SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Scholarships and Practical Information

- Master's Research and Scientific Production Incentive Scholarship

These scholarships are intended for all students with international student status who enroll in Master's programmes at UC and complete their registration on a fulltime annual basis. The scholarship consists of financial support of €2,000.00 to help cover the Master's tuition fee and is awarded each year or semester, as applicable, until the completion of the study programme and for the normal duration (in years or semesters) of that programme.

- Master's Scholarship for Students from CPLP Countries

This scholarship is intended for students with international student status who come from a CPLP country, enroll in Master's programmes at UC, and complete their registration on a fulltime annual basis. They receive a scholarship of €1,000.00, which can be combined with the scholarship mentioned in the previous section. This support continues until the completion of the study programme and for the normal duration (in years/semesters) of that programme.

Housing and Other Support Services

The University of Coimbra has student residences located across three campuses of the institution, all within the city of Coimbra and in close proximity to Faculties, Research Centers, and other academic spaces. The residences are fully furnished and equipped, providing students with a comfortable, safe, and functional environment. The service includes weekly exchange and cleaning of bed linen and towels, ensuring residents' wellbeing and convenience throughout their academic journey.

Application

All applications must be submitted online through the inforestudante.uc.pt platform, where all the applicant's data and documents are uploaded, from the moment of application until the registration of the academic record at the University of Coimbra.

There are usually three application phases per year, starting in March and ending in September.

The specific deadlines for each faculty can be consulted at:
