

DO YOU WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE UN'S SDG 4.7?

Explore Global Citizenship & Values Education through this short learning programme (SLP) for all teachers.

Our Future Reimagined

Advantages of this SLP:

- Credit-bearing: Earn a full credit towards an elective module in a UJ postgraduate qualification (B.Ed. Honours in Curriculum Studies - subject to qualification requirements)
- CPD Certification: Endorsement by the international body ALIVE for attending the UNESCO-approved Living Values Education 3-day workshop.

About this SLP:

- Encourages an in-depth study into key areas, such as the cognitive, socio-emotional, and behavioural aspects relating to Global Citizenship and Values Education.
- Empowers participants to become effective educators in the ever-evolving education landscape.
- Participants explore the prevailing conditions of South African schools, gaining an immersive understanding of challenges in Global Citizenship and Values Education.
- Equips participants to reimagine Global Citizenship and Values Education within cultural diversity by instilling essential values like creativity, innovation, commitment to peace, human rights, and sustainable development.
- Participants acquire a solid theoretical and practical knowledge of Global Citizenship and Values Education from experiences in both national and international settings.
- Supports participants in becoming champions for Global Citizenship and Values Education.

Delivery Centre: Auckland Kingsway Campus, University of Johannesburg

NQF Level: 8 (30 credits/300 notional hours)

Duration: One Year

Approximate Cost: TBC on application

For further information: Prof. Nazreen Dasoo (ndasoo@uj.ac.za)

unesco

UNESCO CHAIR:
Values Education:
Learning to live together.