

Curriculum vitae

Your curriculum vitae is an important part of your application. It should give a brief and concise outline of your academic and professional experience, as well as any information relevant to your research project, in tabular form.

Format and length: PDF format (1-3 pages, A4)

The applicant is responsible for format and layout. Usually, an academic curriculum vitae provides the following information:

- Education and academic career in reverse chronological order
- Relevant professional experience
- Language skills
- Skills and competences
- Academic achievements (publications, grants, awards, participation in conferences, etc.)
- References (eMail contact mandatory)¹

¹ For the PhD studies “Molecular Biology”, three references must be named
