

Information concerning Learning Agreements and courses outside your nominated field of study

You can find more information on how your mobility coordinator wishes to receive your LA in this list (sorted by field of study) and what you need to consider when you want to attend courses outside your nominated field of study in a specific field.

	Last name of mobility coordinator	Do you have to send your LA to your mobility coordinator before you arrive in Vienna?	Is participation in courses possible even if you are not nominated in this field?
Ancient history		Link
Art History		Link
Astronomy	Kislyakova Email address for incoming students: erasmus.astro@univie.ac.at	No	Participation in all courses is permitted.
Biology	Hepner	No. In case you are interested in a laboratory place, please organise this by yourself in advance. Possible departments are all mentioned under the following link excluding pharmaceutical and nutritional sciences: https://lifesciences.univie.ac.at/about-us/	Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is basically permitted, but has to be discussed with each instructor after arrival in Vienna.  Participation in other courses may also be permitted, but permission has to be discussed directly with the instructor at the beginning of the semester as well.  It is not required to discuss course participation with the mobility coordinator.

Business administration	Link
Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies	Rossetto	Yes	In case of interest in attending seminars or proseminars please register in person. Participation in all other courses is open and permitted.
Catholic Theology	Link
Chemistry	Link
Classical Philology	Klecker		Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) and general seminars is permitted without limitation. Subject-specific seminars can only be attended after personal consultation with the mobility coordinator. Appropriate language skills are required for course participation.
Classical Archaeology	Stafford
Comparative Literature	Link
Computer Science and Business Informatics	Weippl		Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is permitted.
Development Studies	Link
Earth Sciences	Seyfullah		Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is permitted.
Economics	Link
Education Science	Link
Egyptology	Link
English and American Studies	Link
European Ethnology	Jablonowski	No	Participation in courses of all types is permitted. Seminars of the more advanced Bachelor study plan should only be chosen if there is prior knowledge of the subject.

Gender Studies	Karner
Geography	Heintel Boodoo		Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is permitted.
German Philology		Link
History		Link
International Business Administration		Link
Islamic-Theological Studies		Link
Joint Degree Programme MEI:COGSCI COGNITIVE SCIENCE		Link	Participation in courses is only possible after it has been ascertained that the student already has sufficient prior knowledge of the subject.  Registration for courses is only possible personally via email.
Joint Programme CREOLE		Link
Law		Link
Linguistics		Link
Mass Media and Communication Science		Link
Mathematics		Link
Meteorology and Geophysics	Serafin		Participation in courses is only permitted after personal consultation with the mobility coordinator.

Molecular Biology	Petersen
Musicology	Link
Nutritional Science	Wagner		Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is permitted. Participation in all other types of courses is only possible after individual consultation with the mobility coordinator.
Oriental Studies	De Zorzi Dagyeli Kitzler		Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is permitted. Participation in courses with compulsory attendance (e.g. seminars) is possible in exceptional cases with appropriate language skills (e.g. Turkish, Arabic).
Pharmacy	Stappen	Yes.  In case of interest in taking part in projects, please also get in contact with the mobility coordinator to discuss the details and possibilities as soon as possible.	Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is permitted.
Philosophy	Benli	No	Participation in courses of all types is permitted.
Physics	Klepp
Political Science	Link
Prehistory and Early History	Nigst	No	Participation in courses is only permitted after personal consultation with the mobility coordinator. Participation in courses with compulsory attendance (e.g. seminars) is only permitted after personal consultation with the mobility coordinator and with the course instructor in charge. Students who are regularly enrolled in this subject will be given preference (limited capacity).

Protestant Theology	Grohmann	Yes	Participation in courses is possible, but has to be discussed with each instructor individually, upon your arrival in Vienna.
Psychology			Link
Romance Studies			Link
Scandinavian Studies			Link
Sinology	Kam	Yes	Participation in lectures (Vorlesungen) is permitted. Participation in courses with compulsory attendance in Bachelor (e.g. seminars) is not possible. Participation in seminars in Master is only possible after consultation with the instructor and the Director of Studies.
Slavonic Studies	List of mobility coordinators	Please discuss this with your mobility coordinator.	Participation in courses is possible, but has to be discussed with each course instructor individually upon your arrival in Vienna to check whether you fulfil the course pre-requirements.
Social and Cultural Anthropology			Link
Sociology			Link
South Asian-, Tibetan- and Buddhist Studies			Link
Sport Sciences			Link
Statistics			Link

Teacher Education	Link
Theatre-, Film and Media Studies	Link
Translation Studies	Link