Fellowships

Diversity Fellowships

Johns Hopkins is a community committed to sharing values of diversity and inclusion in order to achieve and sustain excellence. We firmly believe that we can best promote excellence by recruiting and retaining a diverse group of students, faculty and staff and by creating a climate of respect that is supportive of their success. This climate for diversity, inclusion and excellence is critical to attaining the best research, scholarship, teaching, health care, and other strategic goals of the Health System and the University. Taken together these values are recognized and supported fully by the Johns Hopkins Institutions leadership at all levels. Further, we recognize that the responsibility for excellence, diversity and inclusion lies with all of us at the Institutions: leadership, administration, faculty, staff and students.

Veterans Educational Benefits

Veterans Education Benefits

Johns Hopkins University is approved by the Maryland Higher Education Commission for the training of veterans, service members, eligible spouses and dependents pursuing an approved degree or certificate program. Enrollment certifications are submitted to the VA under the provisions of federal and state laws pertaining to veterans' educational benefits.

Johns Hopkins University fully complies with Section 103.1.(b) of the Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018, which ensures that JHU will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement to borrow additional funds, on any covered individual when the individual's inability to meet their financial obligations to the institution is due to the delayed disbursement of Chapter 31 or Chapter 33 funding from the VA. Johns Hopkins University participates in the Principles of Excellence standards.

In order to prevent outstanding student accounts, students using Chapter 33 or Chapter 31 veteran education benefits are required to:

- Submit a Certificate of Eligibility or Statement of Benefits (Chapter 33)
- Have a current VR&E Purchase Order authorization on file (Chapter 31)
- Complete a Third Party Payer VA certification request each term
- Provide any additional information needed for certification of enrollment

Contact the JHU Veterans Affairs Office (<https://support.sis.jhu.edu/find-answers/records-and-registration/veteran-benefits-inquiry/>) for detailed information on using VA education benefits at Johns Hopkins University.

Standards of Progress

Entitlement to VA benefits for an approved program of education is subject to the requirement that the student, having commenced the pursuit of such program, continues to maintain satisfactory academic progress, conduct, and attendance.

Military TA

Johns Hopkins University is approved by the Department of Defense to accept and process military tuition assistance. For details on utilizing Military TA please click here (<https://seam.jhu.edu/military-tuition-assistance/>).

The College Navigator Tool

Veteran students may go to the College Navigator (<https://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/>) to access a school comparison tool.
