

Careers & Volunteer Expo Guide

Thursday 12 March, 12-4pm
Exhibition Hall, UQ Centre (27A)

Acknowledgement of Country

The University of Queensland (UQ) acknowledges the Traditional Owners and their custodianship of the lands on which we meet.

We pay our respects to their Ancestors and their descendants, who continue cultural and spiritual connections to Country.

We recognise their valuable contributions to Australian and global society.

Welcome to the Careers & Volunteer Expo

This is your opportunity to:

- Grow your professional network. Meet industry experts and not-for-profit organisations to build valuable connections.
- Discover career and volunteering opportunities. Explore internships, work experience of graduate programs relevant to your studies.
- Stay ahead of the game. Learn about key application deadlines in your field and get tips from industry and not-for profits on what they look out for in the application process.
- Visit our Gold Sponsor ClearSky Allied Health.
Discover opportunities across psychology, social work, occupational therapy, physiotherapy, speech pathology, dietetics and more.

Start Shaping Your Career

With so many exhibitors to explore and connections to be made, below are some helpful tips to help you make the most of the Expo.

Make a plan

Explore the list of both industry and volunteer exhibitors and identify the organisations you want to learn more about and connect with. Don't forget to take notes as you go so you can action on them afterwards.

Find your way

Feeling overwhelmed? That's ok – stop by the LinkedIn Lounge in the UQ Centre Foyer for guidance and support to make the most of your expo experience.

International student visa and work rights support

Have questions about your visa or working rights in Australia?

Visit the UQ Union at Booth 7 and their friendly team can help with all your enquiries.

Conversation starters

Unsure how to start the conversation with an organisation's booth representative?

Not sure how to break the ice? Try out these conversation starters to help you make a professional connection:

- Can you tell me about your career journey?
- Why do you like working for your organisation?
- What advice do you wish you had at the start of your career?
- What skills are most valuable in your field?
- What tips do you have for someone applying for a role in your organisation?
- I'm interested in staying in touch, can we connect on LinkedIn?

Student Enrichment & Success Programs

My Career Adviser (MCA)

My Career Adviser provides access to interactive tools at your own pace, designed to help you navigate your career journey. Explore industry-specific career pathways and complete self-paced modules to build the essential employability skills needed for the competitive job market. Upon completion, you will be recognised with a digital badge and a certificate, providing a verified way to showcase your diverse experiences and refined skills to global employers.

Employability Award

The Employability Award helps you reflect on your enrichment activities at UQ and articulate the value of those experiences. By completing the award, you'll earn a digital badge and certificate that provide verified recognition of your diverse skills and achievements for employers.

Get Involved Volunteering and Get Set Mentoring

Gain workplace experience, expand your skillsets and build valuable connections within and beyond the UQ community by being a UQ student volunteer or a mentor in the Get Set program.

Student-Staff Partnerships

Collaborate in partnership with other students and staff on projects that effect change and enhance student experience, improve teaching and learning, and transform governance systems.

Research Experiences

Embark on a research experience with some of the UQ's leading academics and researchers to participate in research-related activities for a selected project. Progress and apply your degree-specific knowledge, whilst developing valuable research and professional capabilities.
