THE FAS PUBLICATION FUND FOR TENURE-TRACK FACULTY

The FAS Tenure-Track Publication Fund is intended to provide assistant and associate professors in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences and Harvard John A. Paulson School of Engineering and Applied Sciences with supplemental research funds to assist with costs related to scholarly publications, broadly defined. These needs might, for example, include research assistance, publication subsidies, copying, word processing, obtaining translations or illustrations, or creating footnotes or indices.

ELIGIBILITY:
FAS Assistant and Associate Professors are eligible.

WHEN TO APPLY:
Rollingapplication.

WHERE TO APPLY:
Requests should be submitted to the appropriate associate dean for your division/SEAS in the Office for Faculty Affairs.

AWARD LEVELS:
Over the course of their appointment as an FAS tenure-track member, FAS tenure-track faculty may submit more than one request and receive more than one grant, up to a total reimbursement of $15,000. Grants awarded remain available for the term of the tenure-track appointment or for up to two years in the case of promotion to tenure. This funding is intended to be supplementary; other means of support, including appropriate departmental/area, center, or research funds, should be applied for first.
