Additional Transfer Requirements

- In addition to meeting the academic preferences for transfer consideration into the Theatre program, applicants must also submit an audition. Audition requirements can be found at: <https://pvfa.tamu.edu/academics/theatre-program/audition-requirements/>
- The Theatre program is looking for students who are interested in pursuing our degree as a focus. The audition materials should reflect that the student is interested in pursuing our degree.
- Transfer applicants should have completed 24 hours of coursework.
- Students should strive to maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.75 or greater on all college courses that transfer to TAMU.
- Meeting minimum requirements does not guarantee admission. The entire record is reviewed for consistency in coursework and grades.

Additional Information

- Transfer applicants are instructed NOT to accept transfer admission to any major with the expectation of later applying for an on-campus change of major.

Career & Educational Opportunities

The Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Theatre at Texas A&M prepares you for careers onstage, backstage and offstage. Students in the BFA will create and produce theatrical works developed using collaborative creation and devising techniques for public presentation, analyze social and cultural contexts in the development of theatrical works, lead with consent-forward practices in theatrical collaborations, and appraise aesthetic choices in performance design, dramaturgy, and directing.

Through this program you will become a flexible and innovative creator who can communicate across cultures and media, and who thrives in a highly varied and ever-changing job market. Theatre majors go on to be directors, actors, designers, technicians, stage managers, and theatre teachers.

Transfer Course Sheet Notes

1. Admission preference is given to applicants with the highest GPA.
2. Transfer applicants are encouraged to complete University Core Curriculum coursework found in the Undergraduate Catalog unless specified above.
3. This Transfer Course Sheet was supported in a partnership between the Office of Admissions and the College of Performance, Visualization and Fine Arts at Texas A&M University with the Undergraduate Catalog having the most extant and definitive information.
